

Recommendation Letter

To whom it may concern,

I'm thrilled to recommend Jacob R. Acevedo, an exemplary graduate of the Become a Game Writer course I taught via ELVTR.

Throughout the course, Jacob has demonstrated an excellent understanding of the material covered in class and has made significant contributions through group discussions, workshops, home assignments, and a course project. Jacob can use advanced narrative design techniques, support game worlds with lore text, and write stories supported by compelling characters. Jacob's utilization of screenwriting practices was noteworthy, as he expertly adapted them for an interactive medium.

Feedback iteration has been an essential part of this course and an area where Jacob has also demonstrated significant achievement. Taking an active part in peer discussions and collaborating during workshops, Jacob successfully completed all stages, culminating in the development of an interactive narrative piece, expertly executed using his chosen tool.

Working with Jacob has been a delightful experience, and his exemplary performance, dedication, and positive attitude have made a lasting impression. I have full confidence that Jacob will leverage the skills and knowledge acquired in this course to propel his career forward, and I eagerly anticipate witnessing the results of his hard work.
